

American Civil War & Living History Day

October 22, 2010

A fun and educational experience for your class!

Join us for our Annual American Civil War and Living History Day!

Open only to schools groups grades 3 thru 6.

Classes will meet Civil War living historians who will tell and demonstrate different aspects of one of the most influential wars in the United States.

Demonstrations include artillery firing, infantry manual of arms, learning and participating in some basic infantry marching drills, cavalry, signal corps, and old fashion soap making.

Classes will learn about uniforms and equipment used by soldiers, what camp life and food were like, different flags of the war, and see and learn about earthworks forts by stepping into a full size replica earthworks fort.

$7 per person

Includes tour of each aspect of the war described and an Old Baker Farm hayride.

(Lunch is not included, so be sure and bring lunch for your class).

Call the Old Baker Farm at
(205) 672-7209 for more information and reservations.
